Condolence to Buddy's family and friends.

I will miss his happy outlook in life.

Buddy's last words to me was "Thank you, Liza."

I saw him last December 2020 when I dropped off my Christmas presents. I told him, no matter what, I will always be on his side. I turned to his Dad, and told his Dad to tell Buddy that I meant what I said. I always took Buddy's side. We may not look at life from his point of view, yet Buddy always meant well. That in itself is worth a lot of gold. I will miss his happy demeanor.

Rest in peace, Buddy.

God will be happy to welcome you in heaven. That, I believe.
