“ Joe was a gentle soul with a beautiful smile, and he was a friend of my husband and me for too short a time. I'll never forget how he ate a chicken dish I'd prepared for all of us one evening. Unbeknownst to me, Joe had an aversion to chicken dishes after having had a previously "unsettling" encounter with chicken. Rose later told me that Joe ate the chicken rather than make an uncomfortable situation for me. That was typical of Joe's consideration of others. Following the dinner. Rose thought that, since Joe seemingly enjoyed the chicken, he'd go back to eating chicken as before...but Joe just smiled and said "No". May Joe Rest In Peace for all eternity.

“ I was my brother Joe's baby sister Lucille. He was always thinking of me and made sure I was ok. Even questioned my boyfriends. Very embarrassing but I love it. When he was in the navy in Japan he sent me beautiful presents, musical jewelry box, silk p.j 's , I was about 13. He was always thinking of his baby sister. That's what he called me. I will always cherish these memories and his great smile. Love you Joe, goodbye. Lucille.

“ One of my too-numerous-to-count great memories is the day Joe and my Kevin went on a major roller coaster at Bush Gardens. It meant a lot to see him find joy and live boldly, even in his 80's. Rest In Peace, Grandpa Joe. I'll see you on the other side.

“ I will never forget being very small and Grandmom left me with Uncle Joe. He sat in a chair reading a newspaper and I sat on the foot rest . All of a sudden he dropped the newspaper and roared at me like a lion. I ran and hid in the bathroom. I still remember him laughing. Uncle Joe came from an exceptionally close family, all of the brothers and sisters loving and caring for each other. I been very blessed to have such people in my life. Always keep thst smile on your face Uncle Joe,whistle a tune and dance with your family.

“ He taught us so much through camping, fishing, hunting, and working with him. He always had time when you had a question or needed to be shown how to figure something out. He didn't put up with shenanigans and we are better adults for his teachings. There are so many things I am proud of him for and I have so many stories to hold on to to remember the life he lived. He lived a rich life and will be missed by many. He is finally at peace and has his memory back in heaven. Love you Dad.
