“ The world lost another good man today, Kenneth Keller. He helped raise me and my sister and was married to my mother for 10 years. Kenneth was a good man who took good care of his family and friends. He was a wonderful stepfather and went above and beyond for us. He worked hard and always knew how to have a good time. He taught me so much about life. I'll always cherish the memories I have of him, like when he decided to bring a pet squirrel home at Christmas time or how he'd always play music on his 8 track player. He loved football Sundays and the Oakland Raiders. And he cooked the best pork chops and rice with stewed tomatoes. I miss those good old days and I miss him. Rest in peace Kenneth. You are loved and missed very much!

“ "Old Man" where do I even begin to start ?? I'm so loss for words- I want to wake up from this nightmare. You have impacted not only myself but our children Mason and Kenley. You are one amazing man! You always had the biggest heart- for anyone! I have tried and tried to write something to you but the words just won't come together. I can't even imagine how Charles, Kim, Wes, and Ben are feeling right now but with the unconditional love that you shared I know that they feel that your at peace. We love and miss you more than ever!!! I'm going to miss calling you everyday- and the kids are going to miss their special trips to Mcd's or burger king and Walgreens and Publix.

You have always been there for me since day one- no matter what time we called you always answered your phone and you have always been there!!! You have always showed me love and thought me that you don't have to be blood to be family. I'm going to miss our breakfast dates and just sitting in your living room talking about whatever was on my mind. Although you didn't say much or always agreed just letting me vent to you was all I needed. As every day goes by I still feel you near- I feel you stronger than ever when Kenley is near. I know that you are watching over us, I have that feeling when Kenley is acting out you are saying" be nice to papa's baby" <3

We ALL love and miss you so much!!!! <3 Love you Dad "Old Man" <3

Love always,

-Kendrith "Kendra"
