

Martin Wade Lewis

September 21, 1945 - January 3, 2022

Writing an obituary for a man bigger than life itself is not an easy task.

Martin Wade Lewis, a true Texan at heart met his wife & love of his life, Diane Maurno, a New Yorker, in Miami in 1989 when they both had careers in the Film Industry. They made St Augustine their home in 1994.

He was a strong leader in the community, an advocate of the Arts & a published author. His life for 76 years was filled with vast changes. Changes of hats, so to speak. No one did it better & he excelled in every one of them.

The admiration & respect for this man from the St Augustine Community as well as the acting community of Miami where he was a beloved Talent Agent is overwhelming. A Celebration of Life Memorial in a historic setting of St Augustine will be most fitting. He leaves behind his beloved wife, Diane Maurno, his beloved son, Wade Lewis & his wife, DeeAnn from Dallas, as well as his beloved acquired Miami family, Tom Maurno, his wife Sharon & their 3 children, Zachary, Kyle & Taylor Rose, who knew him as Grandpa Marty.

His range of interests ranged from music, history, & the Arts & his remarkable use of words.

He will be remembered for his dignity, dry sense of humor, intelligence & talent & his profound love of people & desire to help them.

To list his many awards & accomplishments is unnecessary. Those that knew him knew. Rest In Peace Marty Lewis. You will be missed.

St Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ Dear Marty,
I will always be grateful to have been a part of the life at Marbea Talent. We had some of the best talent in Florida and it was a joy to represent them with you. Because you were the best always, you never lost your humor, your compassion, belief. You will always be remembered .

“ All love to you Diane. A Marty memory: We were trying to come up with a 7th episode for the Key West series that would commemorate the recent devastation from Hurricane Andrew. Marty's incredible singer/songwriter client Bankie Banx was in town. We ended up building an episode around Bankie's very soulful performance in "Gumbo's" bar.

“ I had the privilege and pleasure of meeting Marty many years ago through a friendship with his son, Wade. Marty was always so kind & welcoming to me and I was truly saddened to hear of his passing. Sending my condolences and prayers to the friends and family who loved this special man so very much. May they find peace & comfort in the memories they have as they heal through this difficult time.

“ Nothing but fond memories of our friend, Marty. For those that knew him, knew how much he loved life. Lyn Smith and I had the pleasure of working with Marty (and Diane) on a movie set and we would just laugh at Marty’s humor. Especially the time he wore a makeshift Roman collar made of a paper towel! You will be missed by all. That’s a wrap.

“ He was an amazing man! I am so honored to have known him. Then we agreed to marry Dustin and I 19 years ago on St Augustine beach. It’s one of the best days of my life and Marty was a huge part that. He will be missed and always admired. We love you Marty
