

Robert E Lee

January 11, 1927 - November 14, 2019

Robert Edward Lee, age 92, of St. Augustine, passed away on November 14, 2019 at Symphony of St. Augustine. Born in Staunton, Virginia, Robert served his country in the U.S. Navy before attending Duke Divinity School, where he graduated from in 1953. He was ordained as a Methodist minister before attending the University of Florida, where he graduated with his Doctorate of Education in 1969. Robert became an adjunct professor of U.F. from 1969-1972, while also having a private counseling practice. In 1972, he became the Director of CREST Services, a non-profit organization for juvenile rehabilitation, where he served until 1996. Robert relocated to The Village, a retirement community in Gainesville, FL, where he became the newsletter editor and was a member of the communications committee, current events discussion group and was the Dance Club organizer. Additionally, he was a frequent guest speaker at The Village vesper services. In his spare time, he enjoyed fishing, reading, dancing and current events.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Patricia S. Lee, and a stepson, H. Thomas Wiley. Left to cherish his memory are his daughter, Teresa Lee Lewis of St. Augustine, FL; granddaughter, Morgan Lewis; grandson, Zachary Lewis, and his wife, Nina ;step-grandchildren, Tricia and Tommy Wiley and great grandson, Bodhi.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Comments

“ Bob was a dear friend of ours who was loved dearly. He had such a gentle soul & kind heart. Our thoughts & prayers are with Tea, Morgan, Bodhi, Zac, & Nina. We love you all.
Lindi & Rich

Lindi Miller - November 15, 2019 at 06:07 PM

“ Our dear friend Bob was a great man! He will be missed My deepest sympathy to Tea, Morgan, Bodhi, Zack & Nina.

Jean Hinkin - November 16, 2019 at 12:07 PM