“ I am at loss for words to express how sad and overwhelmed I feel about the passing of my best friend's brother Roy. It has been an unbelievable tragedy to process and accept. I have been friends with Lisa for over 30 years so I have been in Roy's presence for so many special occasions with their family. Great times as well as precious memories. It saddens me to see my best friend so heart broken by this loss as well as Mr. Bresloff losing his son and best friend but I know you both have another guardian angel above watching over you both. Rest in peace Roy.

“ ROY WAS MY COUSIN BUT ALSO ONE OF MY BEST FRIENDS FOR YEARS. HE WOULD DRIVE MILES TO MY HOUSE EVERYDAY TO GO TO THE GYM TOGETHER. WE WENT TO MANY CONCERTS AND MOVIES. MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL AT POPEYES IN NORTH BABYLON EVERY WEEK. THAT'S WHEN HE GOT ME INTO SMOKING CIGARS. HE WOULD SMOKE EXPENSIVE ONES WHILE I SMOKED 50 CENT CIGARS. WE LOVED TO JUST DO ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING TOGETHER UNTIL HE MOVED TO FLORIDA. I MISSED HIM SO MUCH WHEN HE MOVED. WE KEPT IN TOUCH BUT IT WASN'T THE SAME. I'M GONNA MISS HIM MORE THAN WORDS CAN SAY.

“ I am shocked and saddened at Roy's sudden passing. He was a good friend and a great father. Roy will be deeply missed by many. Your family is in my prayers.

Tami Miller - November 14, 2020 at 03:16 PM

“ There are no words to say how sorry we are and how much Roy will be missed. He was taken way too soon. Please know our love and prayers are with you during this painful time.

Tricia Burton - November 14, 2020 at 03:05 PM

“ My deepest condolences to Roy's dad, Lisa, Phil, Rayne, Noah and the rest of the family. Roy was a great man, friend and an amazing father. This news was shocking, he was taken way too soon. He will be forever missed. I'm blessed to have been a part of his life these past years. Until we meet again my friend.

“ I’m so shocked and sending prayers. I remember the fun we all had at action park so many years ago and then to spending the last 3 thanksgivings together watching you search through the Black Friday ads to find the per gifts for your kids. Gone way too soon.

Arlene Myrick - November 13, 2020 at 10:37 PM

“ I am shocked and so saddened my cousin Roy has passed so suddenly. Although I haven’t seen him in years being we lived far away, I remember our pleasant talk last year. This is hard to process. You will be missed bro. RIP Roy.

Russell Bresloff - November 13, 2020 at 09:06 PM

“ God took you from us too soon. Roy, you were a kind,funny and sweet friend. You were my colleague at Stony Brook, and a dear family friend. Memories of family gatherings, working together in CT, going to Atlantic City—lots of laughs. You will be greatly missed. Now in heaven with your mom. Someday we will all meet again.....prayers to your family that are missing and grieving you. Debbie Stewart.

Debbie Stewart - November 13, 2020 at 08:52 PM

“ It is unbelievable to me that my cousin is gone from this Earth so young. Rest in peace, ‘little’ Roy. Say hello to both our mothers, and my Dad, and Grandma for me. Love, cousin Cyndy

“ My condolences to your family. What a horific tragedy for any family to have to deal with. You will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayrs are with your family and friends.

Margaret Graf - November 13, 2020 at 05:17 PM

“ Roy, I met you a handful of times when I was younger. Unfortunately I haven't seen you in quite some time. I am very shocked and saddened to hear of you leaving us all so suddenly. I am praying for the rest of the family, that they have strength to continue after this. Rest in peace cuz, until we meet again.

John Owen - November 13, 2020 at 04:46 PM

“ Roy,
You were my first nephew and the first grandchild in the family. The joy you brought was indescribable. And all through your life you were funny, kind, smart, hardworking and a nephew I was so proud of. You fought off the hard parts of life with dignity and courage. My heart is broken at your loss. You were one of a kind. I love you and will never stop missing you. My prayers are with your dad and sister that they may find strength. Rest well in heaven with your Mom.

Pat Mayberger - November 13, 2020 at 04:32 PM

“ Roy, Matt and I will miss you tremendously. You were my workout buddy, my walking partner, and our riding buddy. We will hold many memories of riding and hanging out with you close to our hearts forever. Things just won't be the same again without you. This is all just so surreal and heartbreaking. May you ride free in the Heavens above. Our deepest condolences go out to your family.

“ Roy not only where you my childhood friend, we were friends in adulthood who became family. As I write this I'm thinking of all the good times as kids and as adults that we all had. We all have such history. When your mom passed, I asked you if you thought if it was better to have loved and lost or to never have loved at all (because the loss is so painful) and you said loved and lost. I agreed because we both know we had so much to be grateful for. I will cherish my memories of you and all our great times forever. Rest well my friend, you will be missed...until we meet again

doreen paletta - November 13, 2020 at 03:47 PM

“ Roy you were crazy funny , kind ,caring ,good friend and a great father, we are at a loss here ,God took you to early. Rest In Peace you will be missed!

“ Taken to soon and so sudden. It's all so heartbreaking. No words will take away all the pain you all are feeling. With no time for goodbyes, seems so unfair but the love you all had for him shows in your words , there is no way he didn't know in his heart how much he meant to all of you . Amazing son, father, brother, cousin and friend . Prayers to all . Rest In Peace Roy you will be missed by so many . Paul &Eileen Rado
