“ Dear Agnes; ever since I met you 2 1/2 years ago, I've felt our bond get stronger and stronger. We've done so many fun things together and taught each other so much about each other's life. I'm so grateful for the things you taught me and the interest you showed in my life. You always cared about my animals even though I know you thought I was crazy to have them all. You always showed love and affection to me and Jim, and for that we will always appreciate you. Thank you so much for allowing me to meet your family, May you Rest In Peace now and forever. Love you, Eyleen and Jim Willow

Dear Agnes,

I am so sorry I did not get the chance to say goodbye because I was praying and hoping I would see you at your home after I get back from the cruise. I visited you twice in the hospital while I was working and saw you. You said you wanted to go home. You said Bill is in the big bed fixing something...i did not realize that would be the last time I would see u...I was away when you went home to our Creator! I came back and I thought I would give u a surprise visit before Christmas! Then something told me to google your name and I was the one surprised!

Anyway, it was my honor and pleasure and to know you and keep you company for quite some time. You were an inspiration! Your dedication and love for your family especially your grand kids and great grandkids is amazing! How many times did u ask me to finish the buttons and mail your special projects, truly they were labor of love and special!

I will miss you and Merry Christmas in heaven with Bill and other loved ones! Until then...- Lynn T.
