

Alfred Giordano

February 17, 1938 - April 18, 2024

Alfred Giordano, 86, of St. Augustine, Florida, passed away peacefully on April 18, 2024. He was born on February 17, 1938, to Frank and Mary Giordano in Trenton, New Jersey.

Al was a cherished husband, father, brother, and friend, deeply missed by all who knew him.

Having served in the Navy between the Korean and Vietnam Eras, Al's entrepreneurial spirit led him through various industries, including bars, restaurants, trucking, and construction. Like many of his generation, he embraced hard work and cherished each moment.

In his leisure, Al found joy in classic cars, traveling, and caring for his pets. Thunderbirds and Mustangs held his fascination, but it was his Cougar that stole the spotlight. Eventually, cruising the boulevards gave way to cruising the Caribbean with his wife and friends.

Al is survived by his devoted wife of 55 years, Pat Giordano, his daughter Sheila Draughon (Chris), his pet Brady, and his siblings Samuel Giordano (Sandi) and Rose Marie Garzoni (Vic). He is preceded in death by his brother Thomas Giordano (Kathy).

The family expresses heartfelt appreciation for the kindness shown during this time of bereavement. In lieu of flowers, the family would prefer donations to the S.A.F.E. pet rescue.

“ To Sheila and family, so sorry and our heartfelt condolences. Your Dad was a very nice man, and loved his pets. Hard worker all his life. Part of the old school of men, slowly fading away. What a great generation. He will be missed greatly. Richie and Bev Lonergan
