

Alix Barbara Vickers

April 26, 1959 - January 3, 2023

Alix Barbara Vickers, born on April 26, 1959 in South Weymouth, Massachusetts, went home to her father in heaven on January 3, 2023. Alix has resided in St. Johns County off and on since 1977. Prior to that she resided and went to school in Massachusetts and Ohio. Alix was preceded in death by her loving parents, Frederick A. and Barbara A. Vickers and 3 siblings, Brian, Pamela and Fred.

Alix loved music, swimming, learning, doing arts and crafts and she enjoyed calligraphy. While working Alix did a lot of customer service positions. Alix was a loyal friend, she was always a defender of the underdog. Alix despised seeing people mistreated. She was very ill for the last couple of years of her life, but was still always so hopeful for the future for herself and her family.

Alix was a homemaker and loved her children endlessly. She is survived by her children, Anthony, Latasha, Jeffrey, Dominique and Bryan; 2 grandchildren, Zendaya and Demarcus and her sister, Laurel Jackson (Dale).

Alix was a true believer in our savior, Jesus Christ and she knew that our Father in Heaven was in charge and that he knew she had suffered enough mentally and physically.

If you would like to remember Alix in some way please make donations in her name to, St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, ASPCA for animals, The Cancer Society or anything that deals with education for prevention of tobacco use.

Services will be held in the future due to conflicts in family's schedule.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
