

Alva Nidia Lerebours

December 22, 1930 - May 20, 2023

Matriarch. Leader. Friend.

For over nine decades, Nidia was beloved and revered. Her life journey began on December 22, 1930, in the Dominican Republic. Born to Emilia Arias and Luciano Salcedo, she had 12 brothers and sisters. Cherished and adored mother to Angela, Lesbia, Ruben, Marcos, Ingrid, and Cathy, In addition to her own children, she helped raise many others including her younger brother Miguel. The love of her life was her late husband Clodomiro Lerebours. As wife and husband, Nidia and Clodomiro experienced all of life's joys and challenges, including emigrating to the United States in search of the American dream. Her legendary work ethic was honed as a youth by raising and selling livestock. Nidia worked many years in the garment industry, where she led a team of workers and was esteemed for her tough but fair leadership. Despite obstacles, Nidia always demonstrated strong resiliency which included caring for her ailing husband. She was actively involved in her church where she also assisted those who were ill. Some of Nidia's joys included cooking, entertaining, singing, travelling, going on her daily walks, and spending quality time with her family and friends. Always impeccably dressed, Nidia had a great sense of style. In addition, she also had a great sense of humor. Devoted to her family, she never removed her wedding ring 30 years after the passing of her beloved husband. On May 20, 2023, she ascended to the heavens. Her legacy will eternally live on with family- her children, numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren and friends.
