“ When I think of Uncle Alvin, the first thing that comes to mind is his big laugh. He had the mischievous spirit of a little boy even into his elder years...he had me believing that he was my mom's "younger brother" until I was in my twenties! Hope he is having as much fun in the great beyond as he did on this earth. Love to you, Norman, Debbie, and Hal. - Cousin Liz

“ *My mother worked with Alvin at Woodstream Apartments. They remained close friends through out the years. Alvin was at my wedding and we too were friends. He was very generous and we all enjoyed how he would get us together at the Union League in Philadelphia. Just a lovely man, many travels and many great stories he would share. A storyteller, a bon vivant, a gourmand, a character, supremely generous to his friends and implacable to his enemies. He cut quite a swath through his path of life and often with his Greek chorus of friends and followers, an ever memorable presence. Thank
