

Amelia Paolucci

January 3, 1928 - November 28, 2025

Amelia “Millie” Paolucci, age 97, of St. Augustine, Florida, passed away surrounded by loving family on November 28, 2025. Millie was born and raised in New York, New York, and was a long-time resident of Hollywood, Florida where she lived from 1964 until moving to St. Augustine in 2014.

Millie was a devoted and loving mother to her three children and worked in several careers throughout her life. She enjoyed travelling, getting lost in mystery novels, and was a talented artist known for her beautiful oil paintings. Creativity was her passion, and she infused creativity into all aspects of her life, which brought her much joy throughout the years. Millie was also a wonderful cook and particularly enjoyed hosting Sunday dinner of macaroni and meatballs for her large extended family. An eternal optimist, she was known for her sunny disposition and always saw the bright side of any situation. Her friendly nature and enthusiasm for life were contagious.

Millie was an active parishioner of Nativity Catholic Church in Hollywood for many years. In later years, she was a member of the Red Hatters Club. After relocating to St. Augustine, she joined San Juan del Rio Catholic Church where she continued to practice her faith with devotion.

Millie was preceded in death by her loving husband of 66 years, Anthony “Tony” Peter Paolucci. She is survived by her daughter, Donna Waring (Craig) of St. Augustine, her son, Anthony Paolucci, Jr . of Jacksonville, Florida, and her son, Frank Paolucci (Denise) of Haddonfield, NJ as well as eight grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. Millie leaves behind a beautiful legacy of love, creativity and devotion that will be cherished by all who knew her.
