

Angelika Stingl Luginbuhl

September 24, 1943 - February 20, 2023

Angelika Stingl Luginbuhl, 79, of St. Augustine, passed away on Monday, February 20, 2023, at Brookdale Senior Living in St. Augustine.

Angelika was born in Konstanz, Germany to the late Konrad and Ellinor Stingl and was raised in Queens, NY. She began her career as a flight attendant with Eastern Airlines in 1966 and retired in 1989. After her retirement, she began to cultivate an interest in the arts. She was mostly self-taught and specialized in pastel painting. She was well-received as an artist in St. Augustine where she became a member of Butterfield Gallery.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Gerald Luginbuhl.

Angelika is survived by her two daughters, Christen Brautigan (Daniel) of St. Augustine, and Bigi Luginbuhl of Jacksonville; two grandchildren, Nathaniel Brautigan of St. Augustine, and Joshua Brautigan of St. Augustine; three sisters, Dagmar Walters (Ed Hoyles) of Howell, NJ, Eleonore Mungiguerra (Bruce) of Bastrop, TX, and Susanne Lane (Butch) of Goldvein, VA.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorials in Angelika's name to Flagler Humane Society, <https://flaglerhumanesociety.org/> would be appreciated.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home of St. Augustine is assisting the family with arrangements.

I remember always being in awe as my mom got ready to go to work. Her nails, makeup and hair done just so. Her uniform on and smiling as she left. She was always so strong. And then she became an artist and watching her creativity take hold was memorizing.
