You were born in the beautiful city of Chinadega, Nicaragua. Famously known as the city of oranges.

You had the blessing of being born on a special day for Nicaraguans mothers, "The Day of the Nicas Mothers"

Your favorite sport was football soccer. You were often found playing with your friends in the neighborhood you grew up with.

You enjoyed life to the fullest. Many consider you a brother, a sincere friend, full of life that filled you with joy. As your name is synonym of:

Friendly, Nobility, Unmatched, Kind, Friendly, Light from home.

Throughout your life you stand out for being a good worker, symbol of Strength and Prosperity, someone that you can count on for whatever you need, always available.

Two lights came from you from heaven, your son FERNANDO and daughter, ELENA for whom you showed the tenderness of an incomparable father that only you could give...a unique example of love and caring.

For your family and friends you were well known and loved as: "El Chino", "Chinito", "Mi Negro", "Tio Chino".

Always smiling, a good father, brother, cousin, nephew, grandson and son. With a heart full of love.

We will never forget you, you will always be in our hearts and may God have you in His Glory.

“ My wife and I have known Fernando for 18 years where he began his career as an delivery assistant associate when it was Sears. Fernando then started his own company and contracted his services over the years up to when it transitioned into COSTCO. He was a very polite and respectful individual to everyone and had a great personality each and everyday. He found humor in everything he encountered, most of them being tough challenges, but would always find a solution to make it look easy. He always conducted himself in a professional manner and was the best dressed person at work. He displayed pride in what his career choice was in the past 18 years enduring company changes, management and personnel changes. He always welcomed newcomers to the delivery business and was very helpful to them in their time of difficulty. We enjoyed his company every chance we had spent time with him. He spoke of his children and family often. I am forever grateful I knew him and will always remember him. Fernando, my Wife and I Love you very much. We will keep you and your family in our prayers.
