Anne M. Eastlack

November 14, 1939 - May 24, 2012

Anne Morgan Eastlack, 72, of Atlantic Beach passed away on Thursday, May 24, 2012 after a brief battle with lung cancer. Anne was born in Washington, D.C., the daughter of Norman D. Morgan and Helen V. Morgan of Alexandria, VA. Anne was a lifelong mother and homemaker whose spirit, enthusiasm and smile touched all those who knew her. In her later years, Anne's passion for people and antiques were joined when she opened the store Sugarfoot Chic (formerly Sugarfoot Antiques) with her daughter Morgan Hawkins in Jacksonville Beach. For over 12 years Anne and Sugarfoot Chic have been providing the Jacksonville area with the ultimate beaches shopping experience. Anne is survived by her loving husband of 52 years, Richard J. Eastlack, children Robert Eastlack, Michael Eastlack and Morgan Hawkins, brothers Norman Morgan and Jeff Morgan, and sister Susan Goucher. She is also survived by her 9 wonderful grandchildren. In lieu of a service, the family will be holding a small, private celebration of Anne's life. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
