“ Tom and I were blessed to meet Annie last February when visiting with Debra and Joe in Palm Coast. It happened to be her birthday and we were invited to celebrate with the family. It was such a pleasure to meet Annie and your family, Debra. Annie was so charming and full of life. We truly enjoyed listening to her stories. She made a lasting impression in just one visit. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. May all the wonderful memories of Annie help you find comfort as you mourn the loss of such a wonderful lady.

“ My condolences to the entire family of my dear friend and former neighbor.

Ann was a true blessing to me. She was the first neighbor to welcome me to my new home in 1975 with a box of strawberries that she had picked herself at a U-Pick Farm.

Ann and Jarvis were the best neighbors anyone could possibly ask for. When Jarvis passed, Ann and I just became even closer. She and I attended church together, taking turns driving, and having breakfast together afterwards. Ann was always the first person I went to with joyful news, a or when I needed a shoulder to cry on. (And those occasions were frequent at times).

She gave good solid advice, helping me thru a divorce, and other life changing events.

My daughter, Lora, always admired Ann and Jarvis. She always stated that she wanted what they had....LOVE and true devotion to each other.

I feel fortunate to have known Ann and the pleasure of meeting her children and some of her grandchildren. When she moved in 2013 to Palm Coast, I was lost without her...many tears were shed. God Bless you Annie, you are in better hands now, and will be close to Jarvis once again. Love You Always!
