

Arthur L. Brogden, Jr.

January 21, 1934 - June 21, 2014

Arthur L. Brogden, Jr.

January 21, 1934 - June 21, 2014

Arthur L. Brogden Jr. died on Saturday, June, 21, in St. Augustine Fl. The son of Arthur L. Sr. and Edna Lee Brogden, he was a native of Jacksonville, Florida. He attended Georgia Military Academy in College Park, Georgia. Following his service in the U.S. Army, he graduated from the University of Florida and became a proud member of the Gator Nation. GO GATORS! He made his career in commercial insurance. After many years with Insurance Company of North America and then Aetna, he became an independent agent with Wells and Co. Insurance in Indianapolis, Indiana. Arthur volunteered many hours as a little league coach and umpire. He was also a basketball referee at the high school, college and international level. He is survived by his best friend, Ann Hammond Brogden whom he married in 1957. He is also survived by his sons: Arthur L. (Skip) III of Niles, Ohio and his daughters, Sarajane and Julia Anne; Andrew H. (Julie) of Zionsville, Indiana and their children, Tara, Heather Drew, and Chris; J. Barclay (Dawn) of Jacksonville Florida and their children, Aubrey, Ozzie and Chris; sister, Mary Lee Goethe of Jacksonville; and nephews, Brogden, Gregory and Donald Goethe. A visitation will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, June 29, 2014 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home. A graveside service will be held at 11:00 am on Saturday July 12, 2014 at Evergreen Cemetery in Jacksonville. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Ann, enjoyed knowing and working some with Art. He had a great sense of humor and was a loyal gator supporter. Look forward to seeing you soon and talking more about him. Best Regards

Ken Forrester - July 08, 2014 at 12:00 AM