

Austin L. Craig

September 21, 1927 - August 17, 2011

Austin L. Craig

September 21, 1927 - August 17, 2011

Austin L. Craig, age 83, of St. Augustine, passed away on August 17, 2011 at the Bailey Family Center for Caring, surrounded by his family. Born on September 21, 1927, in Belize, Central America, he came to the United States during the 1940's. Austin served as a Merchant Marine during W.W. II and even beyond. He later was trained in the field of electronics in Chicago. He lived for many years in Portchester, New York, where he worked as a Quality Assurance Supervisor for Honeywell and later P.P.G. Austin had a lifelong love of the ocean, which included his joy of boating and fishing. He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Lois Craig, of St. Augustine; sons, Doug Craig and his wife, Pat, of Atlanta, Georgia, Ron Craig and his wife, Donna, of Kings Park, L.I., New York, Lloyd Craig of St. Augustine and Orlando Craig of Alpharetta, Georgia; grandchildren, Shawn and Shari Craig, Jackie, Andrea and Allison Craig; and great-granddaughter, Haylie Craig. Private services will be held. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Austin L. Craig

November 14, 2018 at 02:40 PM

“ We are all praying for you and your family.

Patrick A Lawrence - August 18, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Doug, Pat, Shari and Shawn, Our deepest sympathy to you and the rest of the Craig family for your loss. We pray that you all will feel the comforting love of God, family and friends during this difficult time and that the precious memories of your dad and grandpa will sustain you as you mourn. With lots of love and prayers, The English family

Lorna/Clarett English - August 18, 2011 at 12:00 AM