“ She was truly a great woman. I'm glad to have had the honor of meeting her and the blessing to have spent the time we did with her. She made you feel welcome, loved and part of the family. Though Heaven has reclaimed one of its angels, her spirit lives on through her husband, children and grandchildren. She has left a beautiful legacy and her memory will live on forever. I am truly blessed to have known her and am a better person because of it. She made our lives richer and fuller. Though our time with her was short, the impact she made on our lives was great and everlasting.
