

Bernadette Mary Paoletti Patruno

March 11, 1948 - September 14, 2024

Bernadette Mary Paoletti Patruno, aged 76, passed away peacefully on September 14, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of love, adventure, and cherished memories. She was born with a heart full of warmth and a spirit eager for adventure on March 11, 1948, in Woburn, Massachusetts, to Domenico and Irene Paoletti. She married on November 27, 1968, at Chanute AFB, Rantoul, Illinois. She is survived by her husband, Pasquale Patruno Jr.; two sons, Nicholas Patruno and Dominic Patruno; an older brother, Edward Paoletti; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Bernadette touched the lives of everyone she met. Her boundless love and generosity made her the best mom in the world, a title she wore with pride and devotion.

Throughout her life, Bernadette found joy in exploring the world around her. Her love for travel and adventure led her to many corners of the globe, where she created unforgettable memories and embraced the beauty of life. Her adventurous spirit was matched only by her beauty, both inside and out, as she spread kindness and joy wherever she went.

Bernadette's legacy is one of love, compassion, and the belief that life is an adventure to be embraced. She leaves behind a family who will forever treasure the love and wisdom she shared. Though she may no longer be with us, her spirit will continue to guide and inspire all who knew her.

She will be deeply missed, but her memory will live on in the hearts of those who loved her.
