“ I remember when I FaceTimed you after you collapsed years ago in Thailand and ended up in a hospital in Bangkok. You panned the phone to show me the great view from your hospital room of the city and showed off your room that looked like a hotel suite. You were very funny and certainly one of a kind.

Uncle Bernie, wish you had more time with us on earth. I am so sad and all of our hearts are broken from your Long Island family. So many good memories from Birthdays, to holidays at Oma and Opa's and Christmas at Mom's and the Easter's you hosted. You were always that cool Uncle who enjoyed traveling and cruisin' the world. I admired your adventurous spirit. Your quick wit always made me laugh. You always had so many friends and good stories. Thank you for being a great Uncle. I will you so much. I will miss your call on my Birthday. I know the choir of Angels have welcomed your beautiful singing voice. Please give My Mom, Dad, Sal, Opa and Oma a big kiss from me. Rest In Peace Uncle Bernie and know you were loved very much.
