

Betty Ruth Byrge

August 3, 1932 - March 9, 2020

Betty Ruth Byrge, 87, of St. Augustine passed away March 9, 2020 at her residence. Betty was born August 3, 1932 in New Providence, Tennessee to the late Collier and Ines Smith.

Betty was a woman of faith, she trusted God and was very devoted to reading his word. She loved her family dearly especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Betty was a true southern gem, more precious than rubies (Proverbs 3:15). She enjoyed cooking and spending time with her family.

Betty is preceded in death by her spouse, Glen Byrge, companion of 17 years, Rocco Barone Sr., and her daughters, Mickie Cochran, Judy Gideon.

Betty is survived by her sons, Mark Hutchison(Debbie) and Tim Hutchison; many grandchildren and great grandchildren; her beloved pet, Abby; extended family and friends who will miss her deeply.

St Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of her arrangements.

“ I remember she was a great lady and loved her family. Did not see her much after she left Tennessee but did enjoy her company. I know your grandchildren Amanda, Ashley, and Mike will miss you.
