“ I wanted to express my heartfelt condolences to all of Brian's family and friends. For right now there's no detour around grief. No shortcut through mourning. However, please be comforted in knowing that Jehovah hates death; he views it as an enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26) He has a longing to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He yearns to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again.?—Job 14:14, 15

“ Never could I express the sorrow my family and I feel. Brian meant so much to us. He would come over and spend hours playing games with Bradley, make him go outside to play football, take him riding in the woods, showing him he cared about him. Brian had a huge heart for children. He loved to eat my fried chicken and pick on anyone around that tried to get a piece. He was a wonderful young man who went through a lot of obstacles and overcame each one. He loved his family deeply. Debbie, his love for you was strong and that is a wonderful gift that you can hold on forever. He will always be with you. Love to all the family, Faye, Jaime and Bradley
