

Carl D. Craig

July 30, 1950 - October 19, 2010

Carl D. Craig

July 30, 1950 - October 19, 2010

Carl D. Craig, "m & m Master", 60, of Hastings, Florida passed away October 19, 2010 after an extended illness. He was employed at Flagler Hospital before retiring due to health issues, where he befriended many co-workers and staff, who became his extended family. His hobbies included extensive woodworking and avid coin collector. Carl is survived by his loving wife, Inez Hendericks, step children Wayne Hendricks (Ronda), Melinda Weigle (Ken), Theresa Guernon (Steve), Tony Hendricks (Michelle), a brother Ben Craig (Barbara), a sister Judith Martin (Tom), eight grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews, numerous great nieces and nephews, and five great-great nieces and nephews, who in his heart were all his children. He is preceded in death by his parents Calvin B. and Maudalene M. Craig, a brother Calvin G. Craig, a sister Jeannette C. Paulos, and his best friend and loving companion "Prissy". Family will hold a private service at a later date per his request. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.