

Carl Daniel Haliday

November 14, 1949 - August 27, 2025

Carl Daniel Haliday, 75, of St. Augustine, Florida, passed away on August 27, 2025. He was born on November 14, 1949, in Jacksonville, Florida, the son of the late Fred and Evelyn Haliday.

Carl proudly served his country during the Vietnam War as a helicopter mechanic, medic, and crew chief, a role he carried with honor throughout his life. He was a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and the Ancient City Car Club. Carl had an appreciation for old cars and spent countless hours building ship and car models. He loved the lore of pirates, the peace of fishing, and the satisfaction of landscaping. His hands and heart were always busy creating, tinkering, or tending to the things he loved most.

Carl is survived by his loving wife of 23 years, Jeanette; daughter, Michelle Kelleher; grandchildren, Cheyenne Warner, Tristan Warner, Morgan Warner; sister, Susan Sorensen and nephews, Jason and Jimmy Gastins.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Victor Haliday.

Memorial Service information will be announced at a later date.

“ I hadn't seen Carl for years but he will always be in my heart. A friend when you needed one.
Spending time in the "Keys" way back when, driving everyone crazy when we had too much to drink and sang "Too low for Zero" a thousand times in a row lol.
It's ironic that the day you passed I was playing "A pirate looks at 40". I hadn't even heard that you had passed yet.
Rest in peace dear friend.
