“ To everything there is a season and we will be forever grateful for the seasons that God granted us to share in the life of Carl Jr. Our hearts are filled with sorrow, yet, we can smile because Carl Jr. prepared for this moment long ago and now absent from us, Carl Jr. is present with the Lord for we know that those who trust in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will never die. Carl Jr. mastered the English language and was able to communicate with all who crossed his path. Carl Jr. will be greatly missed. It is times like these that we reflect on the times of our youth and realize just how important we are to each other. To Barbara, Cheryl, Lisa, Rhonda, Eric, the children and family, we send our condolences, give thanks for the gift of Carl Jr.'s life, and we pray for your comfort in Christ, The Watkins' Family.

I can remember the night that Carl and I came to your home; Carl meeting your husband David for the first time and you both listening to 'our' stories. It is a delightful memory. “ To Barbara and the Jones Family:

I am Carl's second cousin. His grandmother, Mildred Fisher, was my mother, Maggie Collins', eldest sister. I am so sorry to hear of your loss.

I remember Carl as a young boy who use to visit our grandparents, Elnora and Robert Satchell, on the Eastern Shore of Virginia on many Sunday afternoons after his father, Carl, Sr. had completed his church services. We use to have a "grand old time" running around the country yard playing all kinds of games while his parents sat on the front porch exchanging conversation with our elderly grandparents. There was much fun to be had for everyone and we looked so forward to those visits.

Please accept condolences from me, my wife, Rebecca, and family. We have stayed in touch with Carl's sisters who have attended our family gatherings over the years. We pray that God will bring you and family comfort and peace at this sad time. Our thoughts will be with you.

“ Barbara, we were sorry to learn of your loss. My wife, Brenda, and I wish to convey our most sincere condolences. I am Carl's 2nd cousin, in that his grandmother Mildred and my mother Maggie were sisters. I did not know Carl, Jr. personally, but if he had a personality similar to his Dad, he was a joy to be around. We will continue to keep you and the family in our prayers.

God Bless, Clifton & Brenda Collins
