

Carol E. Dickman

September 5, 1953 - September 19, 2025

Carol Dickman, 72, passed away peacefully on Sept. 19, 2025. Born in Pittsburgh, PA, she was the daughter of the late Charles Trescher and Shirley Wasko. She was predeceased by her sister, Cheryl, and brother, Charles.

A graduate of Elizabeth Seton High School, she worked in the banking industry for many years before retiring to St. Augustine, FL. Carol enjoyed cooking and baking, painting, floral arranging, and golf (she had four holes-in-one). She was also quite skilled at interior design. Carol had a reputation for telling it like it is, with no sugarcoating. To celebrate birthdays and anniversaries of cherished friends, she was known for creating funny, off-color greeting cards and for baking unique cakes resembling the female and male anatomy. Friends would describe Carol as smart, feisty, irreverent, funny, and compassionate.

Carol is survived by her husband of 30 years, Dan, whom she often referred to as "Mr. "F.L." (the "L" stood for Lucky); her cat, Coco; her daughter and son-in-law, Dara Lynn Gerrish and Steve Gerrish, grand dog, Max, and grand cats, Gibbs and Gizmo. A celebration of Carol's life will be held at a later date.

“ Carol was one of my Mom’s best friends! She was always kind and had a huge heart & definitely one hell of a sense of humor. Heaven just got more rowdy for sure. My condolences to Dan, Dara and family. My heart sunk when I just heard the news today. May her memories help guide you through your tremendous loss. Love, Nikki Malie
