She loved her flowers & it is fitting that the last flower is a rose because my sweet friend Carol was a beautiful rose. You were so loved by all who knew you. Until I see you again, always in my thoughts & heart.

“ My beautiful Mum I am and always will be with now and forever
You have been the strongest bravest woman ever! They certainly broke the mould after you ❤️
I am so proud to call you my mum, the original party girl and you are my best friend too!
We always liked to have a party and drink copious amounts of wine and you sure knew how to through a party ❤️ My go to when I needed help and was upset and you always knew what to say and make me very better.
I am so glad I got to spend the last few months with you and had quality and special time and share secrets, we laughed and cried.
Even when we just sat and watched the sad woman Chanel! 😊
You have battled this illness for such a long time and have been just amazing how you have coped with it even when you must of been in so much pain ☐
You have been the absolute BEST Granma to Chloe and Charlie as well and loved when you always said to me you were Charlie's no1 fan ( after me 😘 ) and Chloe you were always making sure and talking her through when she has the bad times!
We always had the best holidays all together and Chloe and Charlie adored you both and loved your crazy adventures ... when mum and Dad wasn't around! 😂 We all had the best Christmas together as well and that was just so special and so glad we were all there.
I am so sad I wasn't there to hold your hand and give you my hugs in your last hours but I was certainly with you in my heart to guide you ❤️
I LOVE YOU SO MUCH and will miss you so so terribly, it's going to be so hard, but you need to have your rest now and sleep tight my beautiful caring courageous mum.

Xxxxxxxxxx ❤️ ❤️ ❤️ ❤️ ❤️
