

Carolina Maria Toradse-Denholtz

April 19, 1962 - May 7, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the untimely passing of Carolina Maria Toradse-Denholtz, who left us on May 7, 2025, after a tragic accident. Born on April 19, 1962, in Caracas, Venezuela, Carolina's life was a testament to resilience, faith, and perseverance. She graduated high school from Merici Academy and began her college education in Caracas before moving to the United States in 1993, where she earned her Bachelor's in Business Administration from Menlo College in Palo Alto, California.

Carolina pursued her academic ambitions with fervor, later attaining Master's Degrees in Business Administration and Forensic Accounting from Florida Atlantic University. She lived much of her adult life in Palm Beach County, where she unconditionally dedicated herself to raising her only child. A woman of profound faith, Carolina was a lifelong Catholic and active member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Palm Beach Gardens. She had an adventurous spirit, enjoying travel, particularly cruising, and cherished moments she spent at the beach. She shared the importance of enjoying the little things in life, as her sequined clothing. Her deep love for animals and her unwavering commitment to her family were the cornerstones of her life, with her most cherished role being that of a loving mother. Carolina was a caring, thoughtful, and loving woman.

Carolina was preceded in death by her parents, Daniel and Irene Toradse.

She is survived by her beloved son, Alex Denholtz; her sister, Tamara Toradse-Moore; her caring cousin, Christina Ziegert; her nephews Alex Moore and Kevin Moore, and her loyal Shih Tzu, Luckey. The impact she made on their lives, filled with love and guidance, will resonate forever.

A Funeral Mass will be held at 11 am on Tuesday, May 13, 2025 at San Sebastian Catholic Church with Father Bernadine Eikhuemelo officiating. Interment will follow at Our Lady of Good Counsel Cemetery. Her family welcomes anyone who would like to attend.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
