

Catherine Filomena Cervelli

May 5, 1922 - December 17, 2025

Catherine (Vocatura) Cervelli (age 103) died on December 17 in St. Augustine, Florida. Catherine, formerly of Doylestown, Pennsylvania, and Queens/New Hyde Park, New York—was born in Brooklyn on May 5, 1922. A devoted wife, mother, and friend, Catherine spent many happy years in Doylestown, where she built deep friendships and served her church community with quiet dedication at Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Catherine was the beloved wife of the late Dominic Cervelli. Together, they were elegant and joyful ballroom dancers—often the first onto the floor and the last to leave—sharing a grace that reflected their partnership. She is survived by her sons, Peter (Elizabeth) and Ronald; and her granddaughters, Christine and Jessica, who were her pride and joy.

Catherine was predeceased by her husband, Dominic, and her seven siblings.

Catherine was a homemaker whose care grounded her family. Catherine also worked in the men's clothing industry and later for the Catholic Church in Doylestown, assisting the priests at Our Lady of Mount Carmel. She was especially proud to help support her sons' college educations through her hard work. Faith, family, and friendship were the constants of her long life.

Catherine will be laid to rest on December 29 at 11 am beside her husband at St. John Neumann Cemetery in Doylestown, Pennsylvania.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
