“ My memories of Chuck go back a long ways. We met on Vilano when I was living in my trailer behind CJ'S by the old bridge. We hit it off right away because we both loved fishing and Pink Floyd and shooting pool. He taught me so much about fishing and his way around people was amazing. He loved his family and Vilano beach so much. I will miss him and his company. RIP my friend. Your friend always. Jim

This is hard for me to write this now that I found my childhood friend from Fairfax Virginia. We were in cub scouts together and played in the forest there. We both loved the outdoors.

*Rest in peace

“ I have many memories of Chuck. He was part of our beach family. He would often ask if I had gotten any good pictures recently. He was the first person to tell me about Princess Place. A beautiful place he enjoyed camping at and recommended it as a place to photograph nature and wildlife.. My last memory of Chuck was him leaving the Vilano pier with fishing poles in hand. We spoke briefly in passing. I am glad he spent his last day here on earth doing what he loved. Thank you, Chuck, for being a friend to all of us at Porpoise Point and for everything you taught us and shared with us. We will miss you. Until we meet again.
