Charles F. McGovern

December 14, 1927 - January 10, 2014

Charles Francis McGovern, age 86, of St. Augustine, passed away January 10, 2014 in at Flagler Hospital in St. Augustine. He was the eldest son of Patrick and Julia McGovern (deceased) and was born and grew up in the Bronx, New York, and served his country in the U.S. Navy during W.W. II. He moved to Brooklyn, New York where he married Margaret McMorrow and became a member of the New York City Police Dept. In 1950 they moved to Bethpage, New York, where they raised their children. Charlie was active in the Knights of Columbus; he coached and managed the children's many activities. He was always there for his children. After retiring from the N.Y.P.D. in 1974, he and Peggy soon relocated to St. Augustine. He worked as a ranger at the Ponce De Leon Country Club and St. Augustine Shores Golf Club and enjoyed playing golf and meeting many other golfers. He and Peggy have lived in St. Augustine for 30 years and loved every minute. They are longtime members of Corpus Christi Catholic Church. He was preceded in death by a son, Thomas (Renee), and brothers, Philip & James, and his beloved schnauzer, Mutzie. He leaves behind his beloved wife of 65 years, Margaret "Peggy" McGovern, children, John C. (Margaret), Kevin J. (Ellen), Margaret Herrick (Thomas), Philip T. (Debbie), Glenn P. (Hope), his 17 grandchildren, 7 great-grandchildren, and many loving nieces and nephews. A memorial service will be held at a later date. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ We will miss Charlie and Peg passing by our window in the afternoon on their daily walk. Bruce would always run out and make a joke of some kind to make them laugh. Our condolences to Peggy, who has suffered so much loss recently. Our prayers are with you. The Lord has welcomed a goodCW man in heaven.
