Charles William Veitinger

May 24, 1955 - August 28, 2015

Charles William "Charlie" Veitinger, age 60, of St. Augustine, passed away peacefully on August 28, 2015 at his home with his family by his side. He was born in Brooklyn, New York and grew up in Massapequa, New York. After graduating from high school, Charlie joined the U.S. Army. He traveled extensively with the army and served in Germany for several years. After his discharge in 1982, he moved his family to St. Augustine to begin a new chapter in their life. He worked for Paddock Pool Construction for more than 10 years, and later worked for many years in marine construction for DJ Marine. Charlie loved living in Florida and enjoyed being outdoors watching the wildlife. He was an avid fisherman. More than anything he was a loving husband to his wife of 41 years, Debra, who recently preceded him in death, and a loving father and grandfather. He especially enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren. He will be deeply missed. He is survived by sons, Chuck Veitinger (Tanya), David Veitinger (Jennylee), and a daughter, Denise Veitinger, all of St. Augustine; a sister, Cindy Veitinger of St. Augustine; a brother, Craig Veitinger of Louisiana, grandchildren, Chuckie, Tori, Lily, and Jacob; and many nieces and nephews. A memorial services will be held 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, September 5, 2015 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home with Pastor Lois Turner officiating. A visitation beginning at 12 noon will precede the service. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.
