“ My heart is breaking for you. She was such a lovely girl. I only saw her at the weddings or other Romino family functions but she was beautiful and had such a wonderful personality. I enjoyed talking with her. My prayers are with you and your family. If it weren't for the pandemic I would be there. With sincere sympathy and love, cousin Debbie Greco Catton

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I recall in our adolescence dancing to Tom petty, Running, Christie sharing her newest pair of converse shoes, running on the golf course at night, and indulging in the amazing cakes her mind would make and Christie helped. This of course was shocking to learn about and I send my condolences. Sincerely, Megan Pinkston-Camp
