“ Chris and her sweet hubby were lights in my life since 2004. 2013 I went through a difficult divorce and sweet Chris was right there with coffee and tissues and tea dates. She was there for me through my marriage to my now husband, and for me 4 beautiful inherited children with swim dates, sleepovers and flying kites. We even had a st Patty's day party once that I will NEVER forget. She threw my baby shower for my first little one in her backyard, and watched him while I worked when I needed an extra set of love and hands. She showed up during covid with video games and pizza for my kiddos during lockdown. I adored our hours of conversation, American idol night, and both of her gardens including Jason's special garden and seeing her love of flowers, God and her boys. She always said of Daryl "He's a special one he is". She loved her family, and her precious mother who hand knitted sweaters for all 5 of my babies. I will NEVER forget her. I love you Daryl.

What a lovely memorial service for my sweet friend Chris. Life will never be the same without her. I loved everything about her. I loved to hear her talk, her love for life, her family and her friends. She would light up the room with her presence. I have fond memories of our times together. When we moved to AZ she gave me a silver spoon engraved with the saying "True friends are always together in spirit"! I will always treasure it. I have it on my window sill in my kitchen to keep her close to my heart. I loved her so much! My love and prayers are with you Darrel and Richard. Marlys Nelson

“ Chris was truly one of a kind, I can say this only having spent too brief of times with her over the years. She was one of those people that instantly brightened a room with her presence and made a person feel valued and special!

My heart goes out to Darrell, Richard and his family! You have been on my heart, and I pray that you will find peace knowing that Chris is with our Lord and Savio!

Thank you for being you, for loving me, for always caring and listening, for loving on Phoebe and Florence. Thank you for the memories, for the laughs, for the late night face times, the sleepovers, shopping trips and all the fun and silliness you bought with you. I am so thankful for our time together.
