

Clark Benjamin Turner Jr.

July 29, 1938 - September 23, 2023

Clark Benjamin Turner (Junior) passed away on September 23, 2023 in the Community Hospice Bailey Family Center in St Augustine, FL. Clark was born on July 29, 1938 in Bridgeton NJ. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mary Turner and Clark Turner Sr, sister, Sara Caine, brother Anthony Turner, and his adoring wife of 56 years, Nancy Turner.

Clark grew up in Bridgeton NJ where he was named class treasurer and was an outstanding trumpet player in High School. Following High School, Clark joined the Air Force and was a jet mechanic stationed in Plattsburgh, NY. While serving in the Air Force, he met the love of his life, Nancy, who lived in Millville NJ at the time. After an honorable discharge, Clark and Nancy returned back to New Jersey where they raised their two children.

Clark is survived by his son; Brian Turner and his wife Caroline, daughter; Lisa Barbetti and her husband Ron, grandsons; Luke Turner, Anthony Turner, Dylan Barbetti (wife Haley), granddaughters; Stephanie Knox (husband Stephan) and Bianca Jenkins (husband Eric). Clark is also survived by 6 great grandchildren, many adoring cousins, nieces, nephews and friends of all ages.

Clark and Nancy moved to St Augustine 6 years ago. Clark was always admired for his strength, wisdom and passion towards his wife, family, friends and many beloved animals. He led a life of selflessness and never thought twice about helping those in need. Clark was also a “jack of all trades” fixing anything that needed repair. Clark was also very funny and loved a good joke. His famous sayings were “my name is Clark just like “Superman” and “yabba dabba doo”. Clark will never be forgotten as he has spread so much love and memories and knowledge to others. He also instilled a “never give up attitude” . He will forever be an Angel and hero to so many people. Thank you Clark B. Turner for making this world a better place. Rest in peace with your beautiful and adoring wife.

Private interment will be held at San Lorenzo Cemetery.

Cemetery Details

San Lorenzo Cemetery

1635 U.S. 1 South
St. Augustine, FL

Events

Details are pending.

Tribute Wall

PC

“ Uncle Clark was a big part of my 49 years of life. I have memories of him since as far back as I could remember. Such a funny, lovable, caring and very intelligent man. We have had countless laughs and wonderful memories over the years. When I was little I told him "you know Uncle Clark you're actually my great uncle. " And without skipping a beat he said "You're darn right I'm a great uncle and don't forget it" and that was the truth he was the best uncle and friend a guy could have. I will always cherish the memories of him and Aunt Nancy. I am very sad that he is gone however I know him and Aunt Nancy have been reunited once again pain-free in their eternal life. Until we meet again rest easy! Love you both and you will never be forgotten. Love always Paul

Paul Caine - October 16, 2023 at 12:37 PM

EA

“ Lisa, Ron, Brian and the rest of the family, we are so sorry for your loss. Praying for your family. Clark was not just a wonderful friend; he was like a father to us. Words cannot express the depth of our gratitude to our Lord for blessing us with such a wonderful friend and father figure. He loved his family unconditionally and was very proud of their accomplishments. So many beautiful memories made through the years, we treasure every one of them. He was wise, kind, funny, tenderhearted, caring, a man of integrity. We miss him deeply and as we remember through tears and smiles, we thank God for his life, a life lived to the fullest. He is with the Lord and his precious Nancy whom he loved so very much. His legacy will live on forever. We love and miss you deeply, rest in peace our precious Clark.

-Efrain, Deb, little Debbie & Josh.

Efrain Alvarado - October 11, 2023 at 11:58 AM

LD

“ Condolences from Clark's BHS class of 1958 friends. His yearbook caption truly captured the fine man he was. It read....Trustworthy, reliable, and conscientious, Clark possessed all the necessary attributes of an outstanding homeroom treasurer. His words are often soft spoken, but they are indicative of his own ideas. He is a deliberate thinker and a lad of good judgment. May he rest in heavenly peace.

Loretta Lee Dilks - October 11, 2023 at 09:59 AM

IZ

“ Lisa and Ron and the Turner family, My condolences to you. Your father was a wonderful person. He was friends with so many people. He and Joe worked together a long time. They became close friends and stayed close., and we visited back and forth a lot., sharing stories of our family and children.Even when they moved to Florida we still stayed in touch. but i have lost all three, my husband, Nancy and Clark, SAD, "What memories." Rest in peace Clark Turner.

Iva Zanni - October 10, 2023 at 02:40 PM

BJ

“ My oldest son always referred to his nursing homes as “Poppop’s castle”. Well today, he made it to his final castle, and it’s the most beautiful of them all. He will be very missed by so many people.

I’ll always admire his strength, wisdom, and passion for his marriage and his family. He and my grandmother had a beautiful fulfilling marriage. They led a life full of love and selflessness, and never thought twice about helping someone in need. He loved to travel and had friends all over the world who adored him. He held his military service near and dear to his heart. He was proud of the life he built for his family. Speaking of building, he could literally fix anything, and could probably build a whole house from the ground up. He was also so proud of his grandchildren and great grand babies. I always loved the sparkle in his eye when I’d bring the kids to see him. After my grandma passed, there was a little less sparkle. But now they can be together again, in their forever “castle”.

bianca jenkins - October 06, 2023 at 08:30 PM

AT

This is beautiful, bianca!

Anthony Turner - October 13, 2023 at 08:49 PM

BJ

“ My oldest son always referred to his nursing homes as “Poppop’s castle”. Well today, he made it to his final castle, and it’s the most beautiful of them all. He will be very missed by so many people.

I’ll always admire his strength, wisdom, and passion for his marriage and his family. He and my grandmother had a beautiful fulfilling marriage. They led a life full of love and selflessness, and never thought twice about helping someone in need. He loved to travel and had friends all over the world who adored him. He held his military service near and dear to his heart. He was proud of the life he built for his family. Speaking of building, he could literally fix anything, and could probably build a whole house from the ground up. He was also so proud of his grandchildren and great grand babies. I always loved the sparkle in his eye when I’d bring the kids to see him. After my grandma passed, there was a little less sparkle. But now they can be together again, in their forever “castle”

bianca jenkins - October 06, 2023 at 08:29 PM

BC

“ Uncle Clark has always been a big part of our family. We were so blessed to have him, and Aunt Nancy at many of our gatherings throughout the years. He always knew how to make you feel special! We loved him, and will continue to share the many heartfelt, and often amusing stories, with each other. We will never forget you, Uncle Clark...till we meet again, may you fly with the angels.

   ... Bob & Paula and our family.

Bob & Paula Caine - October 05, 2023 at 08:51 AM