In recent years Clyde and I enjoyed many phone conversations about St. Augustine, family history, old and new technology, and...yes... fishing! Such a wonderful big hearted person so full of things he yet wanted to do. He was a cloud watcher too ... and now when I watch the clouds scudding by I think of him and some of his witty comments. May happy memories of Clyde abound! Love to you all. Margaret Behlmer Shelton

“ Mr. Clyde gave me a job with him at the Radisson in maintenance knowing I couldn't fix anything but a sandwich. When it closed he got me on at Flagler with his brother Mr. George. Thanks for everything Mr. Clyde and may you rest in peace.

“ I was filled with emotion as I viewed the photos and videos of my precious cousin and read the beautifully worded obit. Clyde and I enjoyed years of lengthy phone conversations, meandering through so many topics of interest. He could talk about anything and make it so very engaging. He sent me a big framed picture of my mother, his aunt, from years ago, and that is one of my most cherished possessions ever. He shared family information and photos and even offered money to me. Please accept my condolences on the loss of this generous, kind-hearted man. At least we know he is now happily reunited with his beloved spouse.

“ Clyde could fix anything, and he did over the years for me and my family. He was always helping any way he could. And then, in 2018, he welcomed my son and I into his home when we moved back to town. We still use funny quotes he would say. My dog is a good judge of character, and he loved his visits with Clyde. One thing was evident always: his love for his late wife. He adored her and his wish was to be reunited with her. May his memory be eternal, and his pain and sorrow be over.

“ Clyde worked with my grandmother (ole bake) Helen Tolnay at the Ponce. He knew my grandmother didn't drive and was a widow. He always looked out for her ie giving rides, doing repairs and just generally watched out for her. A true kind gentleman and I always respected him for his kindness. My heartfelt sympathy to all Clyde's family. Fly high and RIP
