“ Sam, Sean, Aiden & all of your family. My heart breaks for your loss. I know you will always cherish the gift of Connor's love & life. Thank you for sharing his preciousness with me. Letting me hold & love on him & the joy of Aiden & his two loving parents was a special gift that I'll always hold dear. I've been in your position so I can truly say "I know how you feel" I'm just a phone call away at any time you want a caring, understanding ear to listen. May God give you strength, peace & support in your healing for your little angel baby. God Bless all of you.

“ We only want to express our deepest condolences. We can only imagine what you are experiencing emotionally and physically. You may very well appreciate the Bible's words about the condition of our loved ones who have died. They are peacefully resting and awaiting the coming resurrection of those in God's memory. (Ecclesiastes 9:5, John 5:28,29) Our loving Heavenly Father has given us words of encouragement to comfort us in times like these. After many things have taken place, all the factors we have for sadness will be eliminated. This includes loss of our loved ones in death. (Revelation 21:3,4) The God of All Comfort wants to know the thoughts of your heart. Please speak to Him in prayer and allow him to comfort you. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) When time permits, please read these scriptures in your own copy of the Bible or online at jw.org. Your family will be in my prayers.

“ Our deepest condolences to your entire family. There seems to be very little to say that would even come close to the right thing at a time like this. Just know that your family is here for you if and when you need us and know that we love you all.
