“ It isn't easy to say goodbye to our precious princess Cindy. She leaves emptiness in the hearts of all of us who love her. But she touched the lives of so many people in her unique way both near and far. I will miss her sweet smiles, serious and light hearted expressions and rosy cheeks.

I have been feeling very sad about the huge void her absence creates in the lives of everyone who has been so close to Cindy for so many years. It is the end of an association that has been a very important part of our lives that we entered into as a responsibility but found very quickly that it was actually a family that Cindy created that gave us much more than we could ever have imagined when we began our journey with her.

I will be forever grateful that I was lucky enough to have been selected to play a part in her life, maybe by chance, maybe by coincidence, maybe even by God..... a gift that was given to me above anything else I have ever known during my career as a case manager for the past almost 40 years. I hope that with enough time, we will all feel the calm and peaceful presence of the angel Cindy has now become but has always truly been to all of us. I will continue to share stories with friends about Cindy and the special loving care she received from Rick & Brenda, Ricky, Tony, Nancy, Julie, Tonya, Jackie, Karen, Jill, Beverly, Pat, Stephanie, Karen and many others along all of her years who played a caring part of her life. I will look back at her life so well lived with photos and memories that will live on in my heart forever. ❤️🙏🌈. Susan Stiphany

“ Cindy, how do I put into words the meaning, lessons, and love you brought into my life for over 20 years. Your smile brought joy and a calmness to our time together. I never forgot who the real Conductor was and I was at your service in the orchestra. Your mischievous ways to let it be known when you disliked something or your smile when you liked what was happening. I will miss you and our time together. Cindy you have a special place in my heart. Be free sweet girl and keep smiling.

“ Cindy had the ability to light up a room with her smile. When she was happy it made everyone around her happy. Things that made her smile varied. It could be her mom playing the drums, the Rocks voice, the sound of birds and the wind blowing through the leaves or going over bumpy roads on a car ride/walk about. Cindy especially loved when people around her laughed. It's like Cindy knew the people who loved her and she loved were happy, and that made everything perfect in her world.

“ Cindy, Cindy, Cindy---how can I ever express all the love and admiration my heart holds for you. You are strong and sweet and mischievous and beautiful inside and out. You gave so many an opportunity to learn the important things in life. I will cherish your lessons as well as your heart and soul. I am so grateful for the time we had together and will never look at a leaf or feel the breeze or taste a pineapple or float in the water quite the same way since you. Thank you for sharing your capacity for joy, your generosity of spirit and your amazing resilience with those of us you allowed in! We love you and will keep you in our hearts always. Pat

“ Julie Christie
I have a lot of favorite memories over the last 26 years with Cindy. Her smile will always be number one. She would give me her smile of approval if I did something she liked, or if she was just happy to see me. The day I interviewed with Cindy, she gave me that smile. The last day I worked with her, she gave me that smile. You’ll forever be a part of me Cindy, thank you God for allowing me to be a part of her life.
Forever in my heart,

So many amazing memories. You're Smiles. Whether it was your open mouth smile to our first greeting of the day or during our neighborhood walks (on & off road 😊); you seeing the leaves on the trees, our story times at the pond, your giggles to passing by cars with loud music or when your nurses got to chatting & laughing during a live-in. Watching your smiles to your mom & dad & brothers & seeing you catch your dad trying to sneak up on you, your faking it (sleeping) with your therapists, your sweet sweet sigh & smile when you were positioned comfortably in your bed for nap time. Or when you weren't ready to wake up but let us know by that smile with your eyes closed. Your smiles that were always trying to tell us that everything's going to be alright.....I love you & I miss you terribly Cynthia Marie, & I will forever be grateful for you & to God for giving us the time we've shared.
