

Daniel William "Dan" Raulerson

April 18, 1979 - May 8, 2024

Daniel William "Dan" Raulerson, age 45, of St. Augustine passed away peacefully on May 8, 2024 at the Bailey Family Center for Caring with his family by his side. He was a beloved son, father, brother, and friend, who left behind a legacy of love, laughter, and compassion. Dan's journey began in St. Augustine, Florida, where he was born and raised. He was a proud graduate of St. Augustine High School with the class of 1998. Dan's passion for baseball ignited during his time there, playing pitcher for the Yellow Jacket Baseball Team. Post-graduation, Dan pursued a career as an HVAC technician, working for Taylor Refrigeration and Air Conditioning and Arnett Heating and Air Conditioning. In 2020, Dan ventured into entrepreneurship, founding Custom Floor Designs, specializing in flooring and bathroom remodeling, where his creativity and skill flourished. His greatest joy and accomplishment in life was being a father to his son, Noah. Dan got to share his love for the sport of baseball with Noah and helped coach many of Noah's teams. He coached for St. Augustine Little League and local travel ball teams where he was known as "Coach Dan". Dan's vibrant personality lit up every room he entered. He was the life of the party. He truly had a heart of gold and would do anything for a friend or stranger in need. An avid hunter, Dan found solace and joy in the great outdoors, but above all, his greatest joy was his beloved son, Noah, whom he cherished beyond measure. Dan's laughter, kindness, and unwavering love will be deeply missed, but his memory will forever be cherished.

Dan was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Robert and Hazel Louise Herring, paternal grandfather, Billy Raulerson, his father, Bryant Raulerson, and stepbrother, David Mathis and his wife Mary Kathryn. He is survived by his former wife and dear friend, Paige Raulerson, his son, Noah Raulerson, his loving mother, Theresa Mathis and her husband Bob of St. Augustine; his devoted sister, Rhieanna DeGrande and her husband Ryan of St. Augustine, stepbrother, Robert Mathis Jr. of St. Augustine, and his beloved nieces, Rylan & Hazel, and nephew, Kason, along with numerous cousins, aunts, uncles, and many dear friends.

A celebration of Dan's life will be held at 11 am on Friday, May 17, 2024 at Anastasia Baptist Church with Rev. Bobby Crum officiating. A visitation of family and friends, beginning at 10 am will precede the service. In lieu of flowers, donations in Dan's memory can be made to Anastasia Baptist Church Building Fund, Saint Augustine Little League or Community Hospice of NE Florida Bailey Center.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ Daniel and his crew remodeled our home here in St. Augustine. They did a great job. We were in Colorado during the remodel but Daniel was talking/walking us through the whole process. His eyes lit up when he talked about his son. Daniel always had time for us and we were truly appreciative of all he did for us. So sorry for your loss. I am sure he will be missed. Regards, David and Theresa Picconi.

“ Daniel was one of the sweetest men we have been blessed to know. He had such a bright smile and was fun to be around. He will be missed prayers go out to his mom and stepfather, to his sister and brother-in-law, who is also our grandson, and to his former wife and amazing son. We love this entire family so much.

“ Daniel was one of the sweetest, kindest, loving young men we have ever known. He was a very dear friend of our son. They spent a lot of time on the baseball field together as ball players and coaches. We will miss his hugs at the ball field, watching him coach or just hanging out with Noah to watch a game. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ Heartbroken by the news, praying for your family, he loved you all more than anything! Daniel was a "home run hitter" who has truly made it home. I know he was a Christian had had accepted Jesus when he was young.
