He was such a great man who was very wise. I thought about him for some reason. I had no idea he had passed away. He loved his daughter. I will truly miss him.

“ Dan, I'll always remember the great times we had growing up and going through Our Lady of Mercy. We played endless games of football, baseball, and tag at recess, and rode bikes and hung out at the playground. You taught me to fish and set me up with my first fishing tackle. Thanks for all the great memories. Rest easy now my friend.

“ Very saddened to hear of Dan's passing. Condolences to all. Dan's dry yet sarcastic sense of humor always made us laugh and we loved being around him. He always had control of whatever the gathering was too, with subtlety. Dan seemed to have a theme to our personalities from occurrences in the past and loved to resurface them in jest.

Many fond memories of you, Dan.

You will be missed.

*Love,
Arthur & Jeannie*
