“ Darlene always seemed to be bursting with exuberant energy, curiosity, creativity and goodwill. She cared, she was compassionate, she was kind. She participated in and supported the arts; she encouraged fledgling entrepreneurs; she promoted her community in general. She had amazing persistence and I believe she inspired people, especially young women reaching for empowerment, to set their standards high and pay it forward. After I retired from 13 years of innkeeping in St. Augustine, I had the honor of her trust in hiring me as a part-time innkeeper at her Agustin Inn. That was a year-plus of fun, collaboration, frustration (yes, that too!) and friendship that I remember gratefully and fondly. Even when her battery was running low, her spirit stayed strong and she soldiered on. Truly a one-of-a-kind woman. You will be missed, Darlene! Condolences to Kristin and family.

“ Dear, Darlene J Armstrong;

Thank you, my friend, for changing our lives for the better, and for being there to guide us in our new life adventure.

You watched over each new Innkeeper like a mama-bear ensuring that we learned so much about the lodging industry and of old homes too. We grew even more with you in our lives as a friend. You will always be remembered, thought of fondly, mentioned often, quoted a lot, and missed most of all...

And we will not be the only ones to miss you. After all, it was you alone, who created a whole generation of successful Innkeepers.
