Darryl Wayne Niemeyer

November 6, 1951 - August 25, 2014

Darryl Wayne Niemeyer, age 62, died on August 25, 2014, in Jacksonville, FL after a brief illness. He was born on November 6, 1951 in Houston, TX and lived for many years in Jacksonville and Doctor's Inlet. He graduated from Orange Park High School and later Florida State University where he was a member of Alpha Kappa Psi. He lived in Ormond Beach for over 30 years and had a successful career at Embry Riddle Aeronautical University and retired from there as Vice President in 2006. He was preceded in death by his parents, William Channing and Eileen Walton Niemeyer, his sister Elaine in 1962, and his beloved wife, Robin Ganson Niemeyer in 2006. He is survived by his daughters, Dr. Alyson Freeman (Corey) and grandson, Spencer of Austin, TX; Lauren Hillstrom (Casey) of Tallahassee; a sister, Cheryl McHale of Port Orange; a brother, Jim Niemeyer (Janice) of Jacksonville; and a great number of cousins, nieces and nephews. He took great pride and joy in his daughters, their marriages, and his grandson, Spencer, as well as his sailboat, the Caribbean Breeze. A funeral service will take place at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, August 30, 2014 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home in St. Augustine, FL. A visitation, beginning at 1:00 pm, will precede the service. In lieu of flowers, donations in Darryl's memory can be made to: The Hope Foundation at St. Vincent's Hospital, 1 Shircliff Way, Jacksonville, FL 32204.
