

David S. Bertolino

September 20, 1937 - July 1, 2009

David S. Bertolino

September 20, 1937 - July 1, 2009

David Bertolino, age 71, of Palm Coast, Florida, died on July 1, 2009 at Florida Hospital Flagler. He was born in Rochester, New York and was a longtime resident of Haverstraw, New York before retiring to Palm Coast. David was a graduate of the University of Iowa with a degree in Art Education and later received a masters degree from the College of New Rochelle. He taught art in the Port Chester, N.Y. Public School System, retiring in 1992. A gifted artist, he had been commissioned to create numerous contemporary works of art for patron in Rockland and Westchester. He was known for his dynamic personality, sense of humor, and his loyalty to his friends. A lifelong learner, he loved to read and was a student of history and current events. He was a talented gourmet cook, and enjoyed bike riding, tennis, and listening to music from classical to rock. David was preceded in death by his parents, Sebastian & Anna Bertolino, and a brother, Frank Bertolino. He is survived by a sister Nancy Brendice of Montpelier, Vt., brothers, Angelo Bertolino of St. Augustine, Joseph Bartolino of Tucson, Ar., and Emil Bertolino of New Bern, N.C. A graveside service for family and friends will be announced at a later date. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

LS

“ I beleive this was my godfather. I was little when he moved from Nyack to Florida and we had lost touch. My deepest sympathies are with the family.

Laurent Szanto - August 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM