“ I have so many. I'm David's Dad Jeff Kuper. One that sticks out the most. When David was about 14 I used to pick him up on the weekends one time his best friend Zach came with us. Zach came a few times actually. I lived in Tavares FL on a canal that lead to the chain of lakes I had a pontoon boat I'd take the boys out in it all the time they would love to go to the middle of the lake and jump off the boat into the lake for hours. When i moved back to st.augustine David loved with me I had a 2 story house in the woods. He would be home alone sometimes when I'd get home David would come get in bed with me telling me the house was haunted. Lol! One night I came home on my Harley I missed the curve I went and got David out of bed that was the 1st time he ever got to drive my truck pulling me out of that ditch on my Harley. That was one of his favorite story's to tell. I bought him a 4 wheeler out there there was nothing more enjoyable than seeing the smile on my Sons face riding that 4 wheeler. I love you and miss you so much David Kuper you were all I had left. I pray to God your with God now and your pain and suffering has ended. Love Dad
