Deborah Brooks DelCarlos

August 8, 1955 - November 16, 2016

Deborah Brooks “Debbie” DelCarlos, age 61, of Jacksonville, passed away peacefully on November 16, 2016 at St. Vincent’s Riverside Center in Jacksonville. Debbie was born and grew up in Jacksonville and was a 1973 graduate of Robert E. Lee High School. While in high school, she served as President for the Future Business Leaders of America, and after graduating she went to work for the Duval Delegation and Tommy Hazouri, State Representative. She later worked for Union Camp in Jacksonville. Debbie moved to Savannah, Georgia during the 1980’s where she worked for Southern Marine and owned and operated a tool supply company. She moved back to Jacksonville in the mid 1990’s. Most recently she worked as a Health Information Management Team Leader for Mental Health Resource Center in Jacksonville. Debbie had an outgoing personality, and was always reaching out to help family and friends. She was an avid reader and a Georgia Bulldog Football Fan. More than anything she was a loving wife, daughter, sister and friend to many and she will be deeply missed. She was preceded in death by her parents, Billie and Lessie Brooks, and a sister, Jenny Longino. She is survived by her husband of 17 years, Alan M. DelCarlos of Jacksonville; sisters, Shirley Decker of Jacksonville, Joyce Loper of Brunswick, Ga., and Teresa Toler and her husband Wynne of St. Augustine. A memorial service will be held at 3:00 pm on Monday, November 21, 2016 at the Earl B. Hadlow

Center Chapel with Rev. Ron Moore officiating. In lieu of flowers, donations in Debbie's memory can be made to Community Hospice of NE FL., 4266 Sunbeam Road, Jacksonville, FL. 32257. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
