“ Debbie was there for my brother Tommy when he needed a friend. She was family and friend to the Hurley clan. She was Auntie Debby to my sons. God speed to her and best wishes to the Wiggins clan in their time of loss. Love always, Scott, Lisa, Zachary and Devon Hurley...Amman Jordan

“ Staring at this blank page... trying to put this into words reminds of all the pages I wrote in my novel that you critiqued for me. You were right about my model for Lacey... I suppose you'll get to the last chapter before anyone else now. We had a heck of a ride, didn't we? I know it wasn't always easy... but we sure had fun. Well Deb... I hope you are finally resting peacefully. When you see Bill.. tell him I still have the picture of that little Indian girl. Now sleep gently... and rest in peace. Your wry sense of humor will be missed. Love always... G.

“ Deb, You are a wonderful person and we had so many laughs together; not just tears. You are the blessed one; for in a blink of an eye, Jesus embraced you and took away all your emotional and physical pain and replaced it with Real Love and Peace at last. I am still here, waiting for some of my wounds to become scars, and all the while missing our conversations and making each other crack up. I have comfort in one thing, we will both see each other again; HE guarantees that for me. Love, Debby (Lucy)

“ I haven't laid eyes upon you since the 70's, the last time I can remember seeing you was at our Aunt and Uncle McKee's house in Madison TN. on Rosebank. Always fun and remembered fondly, you were a joy to be around. Memories are all we have now. Treasured memories of the past. Your cousin, Alan Stokes
