“ Mrs. Price and the whole Price family were so nice and giving to me during my adolescence. I spent a lot of time at their house. She always had a smile on her face and I loved her lunches. The Prices were the first people that had a microwave. Mrs Price was so cool. They treated me like family. We should all Cherish the memories of such a fine person.

“ The first job I had was typing itineraries for Deloris and I still have the different money she would bring back from her many travels and a scarab from Egypt. She was a Sweet, lovely lady and anyone who knew her is better for it. Rest In Peace.

“ Mrs. Price was always happy and always dressed to the nines. Growing up as her neighbor I learned a lot about world travel, from all her colorful stories as a leading travel agent in the Hudson Valley. The cruise I took with the Price Family from NYC to Bahamas was one of the most memorable experiences of my life. She will be missed, rest in peace.
