

Destanie Dawn Osterman

July 15, 1977 - October 28, 2024

Destanie Osterman, 47, of Jacksonville, Florida, passed away on October 28, 2024, at HCA Florida North Hospital in Gainesville. Born on July 15, 1977, to the late Mark and Glenda Newsome, Destaine spent her early years in Griffin, Georgia, before settling in Jacksonville, where she built a loving home.

Destaine dedicated many years of her life as a medical assistant at Beaches Pediatrics, where her compassion for others shone brightly. Her heart was truly the size of Texas, always putting the needs of her family and friends before her own. She was known for her selflessness, warmth, and caring nature, often making a lasting impact on everyone she met.

In her free time, Destaine found joy in arts and crafts, turning glass bottles into beautiful creations that rivaled anything found in stores. She had a passion for collecting stones and seashells, cherishing the beauty in simple things. Her brutally honest demeanor was appreciated by those who knew her, as it reflected her genuine spirit and unwavering authenticity.

Destaine is survived by her loving family, fiancé, Randall Payne; children, Ivy Turner, Jade Roberts, Misty Newsome, Michelle Payne, Austin Payne and Madison Payne; many grandchildren; sister, Misty Newsome AKA, George; adopted father, Dwight Blevins; mother in law, Sharon Walter sister in law, Allison Payne and brother in law, Danny Moscow who will forever cherish her memory and the countless ways she touched their lives. Her legacy of kindness, creativity, and love will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

“ My sissy n law. Left this earth way too soon but left a lasting impact on my heart and life. Truly was the sis I never had. She loved my brother with all her heart and she loved our/her family with everything in her and we love her just the same. There's not a second in the day that goes by that I don't think of you and wish you were still here!! I love you sis! Until we meet again.
