

Dolores M Reddie

February 5, 1931 - April 22, 2024

Dolores M. Reddie (nee Rizzolo), 93, of DeLand, Florida entered eternal rest on Monday, April 22, 2024, after a long illness. Originally from Newark, New Jersey, "Dee," as she was affectionately known by her family and friends, resided in Harrison, NJ for many years, where she worked as a waitress at Lyle's Restaurant in Kearny, NJ before she relocated to Naples, Florida with her husband, Jon. In Naples, Dee worked for 17 years as a waitress at the Royal Poinciana County Club before retiring more than 30 years ago, shortly after the death of her husband. She then moved to St. Augustine, where she enjoyed playing Bingo, shopping and traveling to see friends and relatives. She moved to DeLand in 2016. Dee is survived by her brother, Gene and his wife, Carol, of Toms River, NJ, and many nieces and nephews in New Jersey and in Florida. Her sister, Grace Franklin, and brothers Ernest, Frank, Gerald and Richard all predeceased her.
